1. The minimum graduation credits for our department (excluding military training and physical education credits) are as follows:
(1) For teacher training students: 136 credits, including 28 credits of university-required courses, 70 credits of department-required courses, 8 credits of teacher training student-required courses, and 30 credits of electives.
(2) For non-teacher training students: 128 credits, including 28 credits of university-required courses, 70 credits of department-required courses, and 30 credits of electives.

2. All subjects offered by our department can be counted towards graduation credits. Among them, a maximum of 8 credits can be earned from the second language course. Taking courses from other departments (excluding General Education Center, double major, and minor programs) and intercollegiate courses (excluding General Education credits) can contribute to a maximum of 16 credits towards graduation electives.

3. For the second language courses offered by our department, students must choose one language and complete 4 credits over two semesters.

4. Before graduation, students must pass the information competency test threshold, which means meeting the basic requirements of information competency as outlined in the "Implementation Measures for the Graduation Threshold of Information Competency Test at National Changhua University of Education."
