1. The minimum graduation credits for the master's program in our department are 33 credits, including 20 required credits and 13 elective credits. This does not include 6 credits for "Thesis Supervision (I) and (II)" and Teacher Education Credits.

2. All courses taken in our department's master's program (regardless of the semester) will be recognized for graduation credits. However, the total credits for courses taken outside of our department or through intercollegiate programs (excluding joint-degree programs) should not exceed 3 credits. If students take courses from GITAE, GITI, or enroll in cross-division courses between the Linguistics and English Teaching Division and the British and American Literature Division (including courses taken outside of our department or through intercollegiate programs), up to 6 credits may be recognized.

3. Graduation procedures include:
(1) Select a professor to supervise the thesis.
(2) Pass the comprehensive examination.
(3) Pass the Oral Proposal Hearing.
(4) Participate in more than ten keynote speeches or seminars (inclusive) and join at least two final oral defenses.
(5) Complete the minimum required graduation credits and "Thesis Supervision (I) and (II)".
(6) Pass the Final Oral Defense.

4. Before applying for the Final Oral Defense, postgraduate students must take and pass the "Academic Research Ethics Education" course through the Center for Taiwan Academic Research Ethics Education online teaching platform (https://ethics.nctu.edu.tw/).
